Health Home / Early Intervention

NOTIFICATION OF INTEREST

The Bureau of Early Intervention is sharing the following announcement that the Health Home Program recently sent out to webinar participants.

Dear Health Home Serving Children and Early Intervention Providers:

According to our recent webinar, Health Home CMAs and EI Agencies interested in being crossed trained and approved as an agency to provide both EI On-going Service Coordination and Health Home Care Management MUST complete the Notification of Interest form. Please see attached Notification of Interest form attached.

This webinar has a step by step process/checklist information for those agencies that are interested in providing Health Home Care Management (HH CM) services and Early Intervention (EI) On-going Service Coordination (OSC) services OR that will enter into a subcontracting relationship to provide Care Management Services to children who are eligible for both EI and HH CM services
