

Bureau of Community Support Services Initiatives

The New York State Department of Health's Bureau of Community Support Services (BCSS) within the AIDS Institute funds the following initiatives that provide support services to persons living with HIV/AIDS in New York State:

- Benefits Counseling Initiative
- Emerging Communities Initiative
- Legal Services for Individuals and Families to Support Continuity in HIV Care Initiative
- Ryan White Support Services Initiative

Benefits Counseling Initiative

Benefits Counseling programs offer in person and remote benefits counseling services to strengthen the knowledge and ability to navigate benefits for persons living HIV/AIDS. Services focus on individual client benefits counseling and support with navigating state and federal assistance programs and any other benefit programs. Credentialed Benefits Counselors help clients learn about their benefits, and ensure they are receiving, maintaining, and maximizing all eligible benefits, as well as making decisions about beginning or returning to work. Clients are referred to legal and other supportive services as needed. Educational sessions/seminars are provided upon request.

Client Eligibility

Must have documented proof of:

- An HIV/AIDS diagnosis;
- New York State residency; and,
- Household income that is not above 500% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for the documented number of persons in the household.

Emerging Communities Initiative

Emerging Communities designated programs are in regions that have a significant prevalence of AIDS cases and are designed to meet the unique needs of persons living with HIV/AIDS. One such program is currently funded in the Western New York region and is designed to assist gay men and Men who have Sex with Men (MSM) living with HIV/AIDS who are not currently engaged or sporadically engaged in treatment and care and engage/reengage them in HIV health care and treatment. Services provided include Non-Medical Case Management, Health Education/Risk Reduction, and Psychosocial Support Services.

Client Eligibility

Must have documented proof of:

- An HIV/AIDS diagnosis;
- New York State residency; and,
- Household income that is not above 500% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for the documented number of persons in the household.

Legal Services for Individuals and Families to Support Continuity in HIV Care Initiative

Services support the provision of proactive and comprehensive legal services for HIV-positive individuals and families affected by HIV/AIDS as well as family focused psychosocial support services for families with minor or dependent children. Legal assistance and representation are provided for a wide variety of legal matters including consumer/finance, discrimination, domestic violence, education, employment, health, housing, income maintenance, individual rights, and family legal matters. Family stabilization support services work in conjunction with the initiative's funded legal service providers to promote stability for families and to ensure future care and custody plans are in place for dependent children.

Client Eligibility

- Persons living with HIV/AIDS
- Parents living with HIV/AIDS with dependent children
- Guardians/ caregivers of dependent HIV-infected and affected children
- HIV-infected/affected dependent children at risk of being orphaned due to HIV/AIDS

Ryan White Support Services Initiative

The Ryan White Support Services Initiative funds support services to persons living with HIV/AIDS in New York State to promote retention in care by eliminating the barriers that impede access to and engagement in care and treatment. Each provider funded within the initiative provides one or more of the following services:

- Non-Medical Case Management (NMCM): the provision of a range of client-centered activities focused on improving access to and retention in needed core medical and support services. NMCM provides coordination, guidance, and assistance in accessing medical, social, community, legal, financial, employment, vocational, and/or other needed services.
- Health Education/Risk Reduction (HE/RR): the provision of education to clients living with HIV/AIDS about HIV transmission and how to reduce the risk of HIV transmission. It includes sharing information about medical and psychosocial support services and counseling with clients to improve their health status.
- Food Bank/Home Delivered Meals (FB/HDM): the provision of actual food items, hot meals, or a voucher program to purchase food.
- Medical Transportation (MT): the provision of nonemergency transportation services that enables an eligible client to access or be retained in core medical and support services.
- Housing: the provision of transitional, short-term, or emergency housing assistance to enable a client or family to gain or maintain outpatient/ambulatory health services and treatment, including temporary assistance necessary to prevent homelessness and to gain or maintain access to medical care.
- Emergency Financial Assistance (EFA): limited one-time or short-term payments to assist a client with an urgent need for essential items or services necessary to improve health outcomes, including utilities, housing, and food (including groceries and food vouchers).
- Psychosocial Support Services (PSS): group or individual support and counseling services to assist eligible people living with HIV/AIDS to address behavioral and physical health concerns.

Client Eligibility

Must have documented proof of:

- An HIV/AIDS diagnosis;
- New York State residency; and,
- Household income that is not above 500% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for the documented number of persons in the household.
