19. Admission and Retention Criteria for an Assisted Living Residence

The following is made known per Title 10 of New York Codes, Rules, and Regulations at Section 1001.8(f)(4)(xii).

1. The Operator shall not admit any Resident if the Operator is not able to meet the care needs of the Resident, within the scope of services authorized under such 24 law, and within the scope of services determined necessary within the Resident's Individualized Services Plan. The Operator shall not admit any Resident in need of 24-hour skilled nursing care. An operator shall not exclude an individual on the basis of an individual's mobility impairment and shall make reasonable accommodations to the extent necessary to admit such individuals, consistent with federal, state, and local laws.

2. The Operator shall conduct an initial pre-admission evaluation of a prospective Resident to determine whether or not the individual is appropriate for admission.

3. The Operator has conducted such evaluation of Yourself and has determined that You are appropriate for admission to this Residence, and that the Operator is able to meet Your care needs within the scope of services authorized under the law and within the scope of services determined necessary for You under Your Individualized Services Plan.

4. If You are being admitted to a duly certified Enhanced Assisted Living Residence, the additional terms of the “Enhanced Assisted Living Residence Addendum” will apply.

5. If You are being admitted to a Special Needs Assisted Living Residence, the additional terms of the “Special Needs Assisted Living Resident Addendum will apply.

6. If You are residing in a “Basic” Assisted Living Residence and Your care needs subsequently change in the future to the point that You require either Enhanced Assisted Living Care or 24-hour skilled nursing care, You will no longer be appropriate for residency in this Basic Residence. If this occurs, the Operator will take the appropriate action to terminate this Agreement, pursuant to Section XIII of the Agreement. However, if the Operator
