Summary of Services (consistent language)	Lake Shore Assisted Living Residence (ALR) is a licensed adult home approved by the New York State Department of Health to operate as an Assisted Living Residence. The residence provides housing, twenty-four-hour on-site monitoring, and personal care services and/or home care services in a home-like setting for five or more adult residents. The ALR provides housekeeping, laundry services, and three meals per day, along with recreational and social activities. Residents receive a minimum of 3.75 hours of personal care services per day, as needed, as well as medication management and case management services. An individualized service plan (ISP) is developed for each resident based on assessed needs. Residents may reside in private or shared rooms and have access to shared common areas. Lake Shore ALR operates under the assisted living philosophy, which emphasizes personal dignity, autonomy, independence, privacy, and freedom of choice, while supporting residents in living as independently as possible.
