The facility type was determined by SPARCS inpatient and ambulatory surgery events. If a facility submitted only ambulatory surgery events, then the facility type was classified as Ambulatory Surgery Centers (not hospital associated). If the facility submitted inpatient and ambulatory surgery events to SPARCS, then the facility type was classified as hospital (which included hospital associated ambulatory surgery). If there were NYPORTS events at facilities that were not captured by the first two categories, then the facilities were classified as Diagnostic and Treatment Centers (which does not include Ambulatory Surgery Centers).
