

Calculations cost of care

When multiple care services are involved, calculating the total cost of care involves adding the costs of the individual integrated care services, as illustrated below.

