April Webinars

Webinars provide us with an opportunity to share in-depth information on Meaningful Use (MU) topics and the NY Medicaid EHR Incentive Program. We strive to make webinars as interactive and valuable for attendees as possible. In doing so, attendees are encouraged to ask any questions they may have about the topic throughout the duration of the webinar. We will answer as many questions as possible during the Question & Answer session at the end of each webinar.

Here are our upcoming webinars in April:

Meaningful Use Stage 3 – April 7, 2020 at 11:00am

This webinar will provide guidance to Eligible Professionals (EPs) about the requirements for attesting to Stage 3 in the NY Medicaid EHR Incentive Program.

Health Information Exchange (HIE) – April 22, 2020 at 11:00am

This webinar will define what HIE is and review terminology and concepts to help you better understand the Meaningful Use Objective associated with it.

Patient Engagement – April 28, 2020 11:00am

Topics covered include: benefits of the patient portal, strategies and considerations for setting up a portal, and a breakdown of Stage 3 measures involving patient engagement.

Regional Extension Center (REC) Webinars & Events

You may already know that the RECs provide free support services to providers, but did you know that this includes helpful webinars and events? To see what topics and options are available, please contact the REC for your area using the information below.
