

Food and nutrition support through Medicaid.

Nutritious meals can make a difference in health. If you are enrolled in Medicaid, you or your family may qualify for support connecting to food and nutrition assistance depending on your access to healthy food and health status.

To learn more about services available in your community, reach out to your local Social Care Network.

Department of Health
Medicaid

Scan Here

health.ny.gov/SocialCareNetworks